

CHAPTER 245.

An act declaring that all tide lands and submerged lands within the boundaries of the city of Los Angeles are required, and requiring such lands, for public purposes of commerce, navigation and fishing, and for purposes in aid thereof, and ratifying, approving and confirming the acts of the attorney general in bringing and prosecuting certain suits in the name of the people of the State of California, for the purpose of quieting title to, and for the recovery of the possession of said lands.

[Approved June 6, 1913. In effect August 10, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. That all tide lands and submerged lands, whether filled or unfilled, within the present boundaries of the city of Los Angeles, a municipal corporation of this state, and situated below the line of mean high tide of the Pacific ocean, or of any harbor, bay, inlet, estuary or other navigable water within the present boundaries of said city, are hereby declared to be, and the same are hereby, required for the public purposes of commerce, navigation and fishing, and for purposes in aid thereof.

Tide lands within Los Angeles
city required for public use.

Attorney
general
to bring suit for recovery.

SEC. 2. That the acts of the attorney general of this state in bringing and prosecuting certain suits in the courts of this state, in the name of and in behalf of the people thereof, against all persons, partnerships or private corporations claiming or possessing the tide lands and submerged lands described in section one of this act, for the purpose of quieting, in the State of California, the title to said lands, and for the recovery of possession of said lands by said state, be and the same are hereby ratified, approved and confirmed.
