The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. That a portion of the land heretofore granted to the City of San Diego by an act entitled "An act conveying certain tidelands and lands lying under inland navigable waters situate in the bay of San Diego to the City of San Diego, in furtherance of navigation and commerce and the fisheries, and providing for the government, management and control thereof," approved May 1, 1911, as amended, has heretofore been improved by adapting the same to use for navigation, and that in so adapting such portion of said land to said use, the said City of San Diego filed in such portion of said land as lies between the line of mean high tide and the seawall erected along the bulkhead line established by the United States Government, and the following area shown on the map of the Municipal Tidelands Subdivision Tract No. 1, filed in the office of the city clerk of the City of San Diego, the eighteenth day of May, 1916, and particularly bounded and described as follows:

Land heretofore granted to City of San Diego

Description All that portion of Block 11, Municipal Tidelands, Subdivision Tract No. 1, bounded on the north by the prolongation of the south line of Ash Street; on the east by Pacific Highway; on the south by A Street; and on the west by Belt Street.
