on February 26, 1976. The activity includes the use of a buried, artificially lighted concrete pipeline for anadromous fish release and return.

The yields have been inadequate and it would appear that some characteristics of the enclosed concrete pipe have led to low fish returns. The artificial light within the pipe, flow velocity at the discharge point, and other unknown factors may be responsible. Although the pipe system can and will be used for fish release and for intake of seawater, it seems clear to the operators of Silverking that a surface fishway is necessary for successful fish returns.

The present proposal is to construct an exposed concrete fishway which would extend from the existing fish house across the south end of Davenport Landing Beach. The applicant advises that other exposed concrete fishways have been built at Coos Bay and Newport Bay, in Oregon, and that these have operated successfully.

The object of the applicant's business is to raise, release and recapture fish. A successful operation would increase fish population in the ocean and would provide more fish to the applicant to sell for commercial purposes.

- B. The applicant has advised that there is public use of the beach area and that the proposed facility would have minimal effect on such use. Staff has inspected the area, along with Coastal Commission staff, and concludes that applicant's advice seems reasonable considering the character of the surrounding terrain. However, the staff believes that the State should reserve the right to require the construction of a pedestrian bridge by lessee, if the public is unreasonably restrained by the new fishway.

OTHER PERTINENT INFORMATION:

1. This project is exempt from CEQA in that the proposed fishway is a minor alteration of an existing fish production facility which enhances the improvement of fish habitat and will increase fish production. (Categorical exemption Class 4(d): Minor Alterations to Land).
2. The project is situated on State land identified as possessing significant environmental values pursuant to P.R.C. 6370.1, and is classified in a use category, Class B, which authorizes limited use. Staff has coordinated this project with those agencies who nominated the site as containing significant environmental values, and they have found this project to be compatible with their nomination. Agencies contacted include the Association of Monterey Bay Area Governments; County of Santa Cruz Planning Department; Department of Parks and Recreation; Office of Historic Preservation; California Coastal Commission; and the Department of Fish and Game.

Staff of the Department of Fish and Game's marine culture lab at Monterey expressed the Department's promotion of fish farming facilities such as Silverking Oceanic Farms as a method of increasing local anadromous fish populations thereby improving sport and commercial fishing.

Coastal Commission staff indicated approval of the proposed fishway, with the understanding that a pedestrian access bridge may be required under the circumstances previously described. The applicant has agreed to such a provision.

Pursuant to discussions with these agencies it has been determined that the proposed fishway will have no significant adverse affect on the quality of the environment.
