APPROVAL OF SERVICE AGREEMENT FOR SURVEY, MAP AND DESCRIPTION OF
GRANT TO THE COUNTY OF SANTA CRUZ

By Chapter 687, Statutes of 1935 the California Legislature granted, in trust, to the County of Santa Cruz certain tidelands and submerged lands fronting the "village of Capitola".

By Chapter 884, Statutes of 1974, the 1935 grant was amended to allow the conveyance of the County of Santa Cruz grant lands to the City of Capitola, subject to the public trust and those conditions set forth in the grant statute.

Section 6359 of the P.R.C. requires that the State Lands Commission at the cost of the grantee, survey, monument, and record a plat and description of the granted lands in the office of the County Recorder.

The Capitola City Council by resolution #1541 has expressed its intention to acquire a portion of the lands granted to the County of Santa Cruz and has executed a service agreement with the State Lands Commission whereby the Commission will be reimbursed for the cost of survey, mapping, and recording a map and description of the granted lands.
